ARTICLE III – PURPOSE AND MISSION

- A. The purpose of this EPNA shall be to work for the improvement of the comprehensive residential qualities of the neighborhood.
- B. The mission of this EPNA is to promote the Elmwood Park Neighborhood as a historically important city neighborhood which enhances the quality of life for city residents, stressing its placement on the National Register of Historic Places and its distinctive Design Preservation status. As such, the primary goals of the EPNA are to:
 - work to enhance the perception, image, beauty and the physical well-being of Elmwood Park for its residents,
 - work for the preservation and protection of the architectural integrity of the homes and structures within the neighborhood;
 - promote the neighborhood as a premier city neighborhood within the city of Columbia; and
 - support and advance projects to beautify and preserve the physical environment of the neighborhood.

ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP

- A. Any adult (eighteen ((18)) years of age or older) who resides within Elmwood Park or who owns property within Elmwood Park is eligible for residential membership in the EPNA.
- B. Any commercial business, church or organization within the EPNA boundaries is eligible for a commercial membership within the EPNA.
- C. Individuals and entities described above may join the EPNA by completing a membership application. Although membership is complimentary, the EPNA requests a financial donation with each application or renewal. The requested amount for the individual residential membership donation is $10.00 per year. The requested amount for the commercial membership is $50.00 per year. Effective January 1, 2016, the requested amounts for the individual residential membership shall be $20.00 per year, the dual membership shall be $30.00 per year, and the commercial membership shall remain at $50.00 per year. The authority to waive membership donation requests shall reside solely with a majority of the Executive Committee.

- D. Individuals or entities described above may join the EPNA at any time during the year, but are considered certified members only when their membership form is received by the Secretary of the EPNA. Only memberships that are received or postmarked by April 30 of each calendar year are eligible to vote for Officers or Executive Committee members during the annual May elections.
- E. Membership in the EPNA will run through December 31 of the year a valid membership application is received.
- F. Persons or entities eligible for new memberships may join the EPNA at any time during the year by completing a membership application. Applications may be obtained electronically or in person from the EPNA Secretary or the Membership Committee chairperson.
- G. The Secretary of the EPNA shall maintain a membership roster. The Secretary shall certify and report the membership at each regularly scheduled meeting. The Secretary shall certify and report the voting membership at the regularly scheduled meeting directly preceding the annual EPNA meeting in the month of May.
- H. For two (2) consecutive EPNA meetings prior to the date of the annual May elections, the President or presiding officer of the EPNA meeting shall announce that the Secretary must receive a completed membership registration by April 30.
- I. EPNA members understand that these bylaws outline the operations of the association, the means for establishing leadership and the guidelines for decision making processes by the Executive Committee. Therefore, all EPNA members agree to hold harmless and waive their right to bring civil action against:
 - 1. The Executive Committee of the EPNA
 - 2. Any and all members of the EPNA Executive Committee
 - 3. The Officers of the EPNA
 - 4. The EPNA with regard to the decisions made and actions taken to meet the stated purpose of the organization according to Article III of these bylaws.

ARTICLE V – ORGANIZATION OF THE ASSOCIATION

SECTION ONE – OFFICERS

Officers of the EPNA shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, to be elected biennially by a simple majority of the certified EPNA members attending the annual meeting in May.

SECTION TWO – EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

This section governs the terms and reelection of Officers and Executive Committee members in office on the effective date of these bylaws. Executive Committee members in office on the effective date of these bylaws are eligible to serve until the following elections.

- A. There shall be an Executive Committee (which includes Officers) that is composed of nine (9) voting members and one (1) non-voting alternate, all of whom are elected by a plurality vote of the voting members attending the annual May meeting. The EPNA Executive Committee shall consist of the President, the Vice President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, five committee members and one alternate. Two (2) non-voting (“Ex-Officio”) positions may be recognized as contributing members of the Executive Committee.
- B. Members of the Executive Committee shall be elected by a simple majority of the voting members attending the May meeting. All Executive Committee members shall be elected for a term of two (2) years and shall not serve more than three (3) consecutive terms in any capacity.
- C. To maintain stability and continuity of leadership within the EPNA, the Executive Committee members (including the alternate position) shall be elected at staggered intervals. Election of Officers shall be held in even-numbered years. The election of the other Executive Committee members shall be conducted in odd-numbered years.
- D. The President and Vice President shall serve as Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall meet within one (1) month after the annual meeting in May and thereafter as defined in Article VI, Section Three.
- E. Executive Committee members who resign, die, move away or miss any two (2) consecutive EPNA meetings or a total of any four (4) EPNA and EPNA-EC meetings during each calendar year shall be replaced by the alternate. Executive Committee members shall be allowed two (2) excused absences that may not be used in consecutive months.

- F. The Secretary of the EPNA will give written notice to any member with two (2) unexcused absences. Executive Committee members may be excused as long as they adhere to the following stipulations:
 - 1. Notify one (1) of the Officers of the meeting
 - 2. Obtain an agenda of the meeting
 - 3. Deliver a proxy for any issues to be voted upon at the meeting
- G. Members are encouraged to provide a letter stating their opinion(s) on the issues listed on the agenda. Opinion letters will need to be provided to an Officer in advance of the meeting. The Officer will read the opinion letter at the appropriate time during the Executive Committee meeting. A courtesy copy of all opinion letters shall be submitted to the Secretary for the record.
- H. The EPNA Secretary will advise the absent member of the Executive Committee of his/her right to resign or continue to serve. If a committee member elects to resign his/her seat on the Executive Committee, the alternate shall replace him/her. If the member elects to resign his/her office, the vacant position will be filled as defined in Article V, Section Four.
- I. All elected Executive Committee Members of the EPNA are subject to removal proceedings. The conviction of a crime while in office, dereliction of duty as defined by the Executive Committee, unethical behavior or failure to fulfill duties of office constitute sufficient grounds for removal.
- J. The EPNA Executive Committee shall have sole power of removal. This action may not be taken anonymously. A letter explaining the reasons for the removal of an EPNA Executive Committee member must be submitted to all members of the Executive Committee at least five (5) business days before any scheduled vote. The executive committee member subject to the removal proceedings may not vote on the removal. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voting Executive Committee members will remove a member. Upon a successful vote to remove an Officer, the office shall immediately be declared vacant.

SECTION THREE – VOTING

- A. Voting privileges at the regular, annual and other special meetings called by the Executive Committee are extended to all registered voting members as recorded on the membership roster and certified by the EPNA Secretary as defined in Article IV.
- B. Each of the voting members may have one (1) vote. Only voting members of the EPNA will be eligible to vote for EPNA Officers, Executive Committee members and on the organization's financial matters.
- C. Either the EPNA Secretary or the EPNA Membership and Planning Committee, if extant, will certify candidates for any office or position on the Executive Committee. Candidates must be voting members of the EPNA, be a resident and must have attended two (2) prior regular meetings in the calendar year prior to the elections. The slate of candidates will be presented to the membership during the March meeting.
- D. Nominations for candidates will not be accepted from the floor.
- E. Any member of the EPNA who meets the requirements of this subsection may offer him/herself as a candidate for any office to be filled at any election by giving written notice of his/her intention to be a candidate for such office to either the EPNA Secretary or the Membership and Planning Committee chairperson by January 31st.
- F. The names of all eligible candidates made known to the EPNA Secretary and the Membership and Planning Committee chair shall be placed before the membership of the EPNA during the March meeting.

SECTION FOUR – VACANCIES OF THE EPNA OFFICERS AND THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBERS

- A. In the event the President is unable to serve for any reason, the Vice President shall assume the duties of the President. In the event that the Vice President is unwilling or unable to assume the duties of the President, his/her replacement will be elected from among the members of the Executive Committee by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.
- B. In the event the Vice President is unable to serve, his/her replacement will be elected by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.
- C. In the event that the Secretary is unable to serve, his/her replacement will be elected by a majority of the Executive Committee.
- D. In the event that the Treasurer is unable to serve, his/her replacement will be elected by a majority of the Executive Committee.
- E. All replacements elected by the Executive Committee shall comply with Article V, Section Three of these bylaws.
